

Sleep Diary

Keeping a sleep diary helps you get a clearer picture of your baby's seemingly unpredictable and disorganized sleep habits. Use this form to record the details of your baby's sleep habits and compare your notes day-to-day.

(Note: An important part of teaching a baby healthy sleep habits is letting him learn how to fall asleep on his own in his crib. Therefore, even though your baby may have fallen asleep during soothing – while feeding, rocking, etc. – you should note the time he went down in his crib as the official start of his sleep period.)

Born Learning™ is a public engagement and material distribution campaign that provides important information about what young children need every day to ensure quality early learning. Designed to support you in your critical role as a child's first teacher, Born Learning materials are made available through the efforts of United Way, United Way Success By 6 and Civitas. For more information, visit us online at bornlearning.org.

Civitas thanks Parents as Teachers, an international early childhood parent education and family support program, for their ongoing support.
